

2nd week: DO NOT STOP on the way!

We stop with and for the Lord, but we cannot settle in!

Godspel (Mk.9: 1-9):

After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.

Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Pope Francis (Message for Lent 2015):

Usually, when we are healthy and comfortable, we forget about others (something God the Father never does): we are unconcerned with their problems, their sufferings and the injustices they endure ... Our heart grows cold. As long as I am relatively healthy and comfortable, I don't think about those less well off. Today, this selfish attitude of indifference has taken on global proportions, to the extent that we can speak of a globalization of indifference. It is a problem which we, as Christians, need to confront.

Saint Raphaela Mary:

"Less care of myself, and much, much more, about the interests of Jesus in all their extension."

"Let us be continually transformed by Him, as laid in the hands of the potter."

We ask the grace to discern.

- ✓ What is the difference I find between hearing and listening?
- ✓ Our faith in God has much to do with the ability to listen. Thank Him for the gift of faith you have, because it helps you to listen and be attentive to the needs of the people around you.

PRAYER:

Lord, speak, your servant is listening. Captivate me, make me fall in love.

Tell me about yourself, your cause, the Kingdom of your Father, about building a world more just, more human, a fraternal world.

Make my heart burn, so that I too may reignite others.
